Total Member Involvement

Definition

Global TMI calls on every church and every member to become actively involved in making disciples using Christ's method.

Every church is asked to launch this ongoing, culture-changing, personal and public evangelism strategy.

Culture

1. Success is based on the number of workers, not just baptisms.
2. We combine public efforts with personal, but personal is primary.
3. The church's disciple-making plan is to be active and ongoing.

Disciple-Making Framework

1. PREPARE the soil of the heart
2. PLANT seeds of truth
3. CULTIVATE spiritual interest
4. HARVEST decisions for Christ
5. PRESERVE the harvest

“Sometimes, after a company of people has accepted the truth, the minister thinks that he must immediately go to a new field . . . This is wrong; he should finish the work begun; for in leaving it incomplete, more harm than good is done.

Evangelism, p. 322

“No field is so unpromising as one that has been cultivated just enough to give the weeds a more luxuriant growth. By this method of labor . . . many are driven where they can never again be reached. A minister might better not engage in the work unless he can bind it off thoroughly.” need of guidance from the word of God. They are governed by impressions which they regard as the voice of God in the soul. But the spirit that controls them is not the Spirit of God. This following of impressions, to the neglect of the Scriptures, can lead only to confusion, to deception and ruin. It serves only to further the designs of the evil one. Since the ministry of the Holy Spirit is of vital importance to the church of Christ, it is one of the devices of Satan, through the errors of extremists and fanatics, to cast contempt upon the work of the Spirit and cause the people of God to neglect this source of strength which our Lord Himself has provided.

In harmony with the word of God, His Spirit was to continue its work throughout the period of the gospel dispensation. During the ages while the Scriptures of both the Old and the New Testament were being given, the Holy Spirit did not cease to communicate light to individual minds, apart from the revelations to be embodied in the Sacred Canon. The Bible itself relates how, through the Holy Spirit, men received warning, reproof, counsel, and instruction, in matters in no way relating to the giving of the Scriptures. And mention is made of prophets in different ages, of whose utterances nothing is recorded. In like manner, after the close of the canon of the Scripture, the Holy Spirit was still to continue its work, to enlighten, warn, and comfort the children of God.

Jesus promised His disciples, "The Comforter which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." "When He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth: ... and He will show you things to come." John 14:26; 16:13. Scripture plainly teaches that these promises, so far from being limited to apostolic days, extend to the church of Christ in all ages. The Saviour assures His followers, "I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." Matthew 28:20. And Paul declares that the gifts and manifestations of the Spirit were set in the church "for the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ." Ephesians 4:12, 13.

For the believers at Ephesus the apostle prayed, "That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him: the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of His calling, and ... what is the exceeding greatness of His power to usward who believe." Ephesians 1:17-19. The ministry of the divine Spirit in enlightening the understanding and opening to the mind the deep things of God's holy word, was the blessing which Paul thus besought for the Ephesian church.

After the wonderful manifestation of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost, Peter exhorted the people to repentance and baptism in the name of Christ, for the remission of their sins; and he said: "Ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call." Acts 2:38, 39.

In immediate connection with the scenes of the great day of God, the Lord by the prophet Joel has promised a special manifestation of His Spirit. Joel 2:28. This prophecy received a partial fulfillment in the outpouring of the Spirit on the Day of Pentecost; but it will reach its full accomplishment in the manifestation of divine grace which will attend the closing work of the gospel.

The great controversy between good and evil will increase in intensity to the very close of time. In all ages the wrath of Satan has been manifested against the church of Christ; and God has bestowed His grace and Spirit upon His people to strengthen them to stand against the power of the evil one. When the apostles of Christ were to bear His gospel to the world and to record it for all future ages, they were especially endowed with the enlightenment of the Spirit. But as the church approaches her final deliverance, Satan is to work with greater power. He comes down "having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." Revelation 12:12. He will work "with all power and signs and lying wonders." 2 Thessalonians 2:9. For six thousand years that mastermind that once was highest among the angels of God has been wholly bent to the work of deception and ruin. And all the depths of satanic skill and subtlety acquired, all the cruelty developed, during these struggles of the ages, will be brought to bear against God's people in the final conflict. And in this time of peril the followers of Christ are to bear to the world the warning of the Lord's second advent; and a people are to be prepared to stand before Him at His coming, "without spot, and blameless." 2 Peter 3:14. At this time the special endowment of divine grace and power is not less needful to the church than in apostolic days.

Through the illumination of the Holy Spirit, the scenes of the long-continued conflict between good and evil have been opened to the writer of these pages. From time to time I have been permitted to behold the working, in different ages, of the great controversy between Christ, the Prince of life, the Author of our salvation, and Satan, the prince of evil, the author of sin, the first transgressor of God's holy law. Satan's enmity against Christ has been manifested against His followers. The same hatred of the principles of God's law, the same policy of deception, by which error is made to appear as truth, by which human laws are substituted for the law of God, and men are led

"am a pastor in one of the protestant church but I had a question about hell. As we are saying God is love how he put human being eternal fire. But now it is answered. I love all what I have learned in 22 lessons. I feel now as a new believer."

From Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

70 years ago my father was going to market and suddenly the robberies came and shoot him with him with two bullet and he got injured and the people people took him to the best hospital at that time and time and amazingly that hospital belongs to Adventist Adventist missionaries of Norwegian. While he was he was taking the treatment the doctors teach him him how to read and write for he didn't attend any any school. When start to read and write they gave gave him the book of Luke.

They sent him to his home. After he brought that book he put it in the box for 50 years for he was a famous sheikh and mosque leader. After 50 years i found that book and read then I went to the nearest church and accepted Jesus as my personally savior. Finally I preached to my dad and he also decided to follow Jesus. Now am looking the way to leave this Protestant church and join seventh day church."

Bible Study Ministry and Harvest Events in Every Church

Why We Should Give More Bible Studies?

“It is not preaching that is most important; it is house-to-house work, reasoning from the Word, explaining the Word. It is those workers who follow the methods that Christ followed who will win souls for their hire.”

Gospel Workers, p. 468

“If we can have but one part done, let it be the individual labor of opening the Scriptures in households.”

Christian Service, p. 121

“The best work you can do is to teach, to educate. . . . Preach less, and educate more by holding Bible readings, and by praying with families and little companies.”

Gospel Workers, p. 193

“Among the members of our churches there should be more house-to-house labor in giving Bible readings and distributing literature.”

Testimonies for the Church, vol. 9, p. 127

“This house-to-house labor, searching for souls, hunting for the lost sheep, is the most essential work that can be done.”

Evangelism, p. 431

“As we approach the end, I have seen that in these meetings there will be less preaching, and more Bible study. . . . This was the method that Christ taught His disciples.”

Gospel Workers, pp. 407, 408

“Let ministers teach church members that in order to grow in spirituality, they must carry the burden that the Lord has laid upon them—the burden of leading souls into the truth.”

Christian Service, p. 69

10 Reasons for More Bible Studies

1. Core to our mission to preach (Mt. 24:14; Rev 14:6).
2. Christ's method was personal labor (COL, p. 229).
3. The greatest need (5T, pp. 255-6).
4. The most important work (GW, p. 468).
5. The one part (ChS, p. 121).
6. The best work (GW, p. 193).
7. The most essential work (Ev, p. 431 ; 9T, p. 127).
8. The deepest work (6T, p. 87).
9. A special end-time method (GW, pp. 407-8; 9T, p. 126).
10. Our God-given responsibility (ChS, p. 69).
