NAME

ALL THINGS NEW:
HOPE STARTS HERE

ARE YOU IN?

Yes. I am looking forward to experiencing a closer walk with Jesus. Over the next year, I commit to seeking Him daily, praying faithfully for others, and allowing Him to make all things new in my life as I join believers around the world in one voice.

HOW TO USE THIS JOURNAL

OneVoice27 is more than an event. It is a movement of prayer, revival, and mission. It begins with a heart surrendered to Jesus and a church united in prayer.

01 Begin with God

Open the week's Scripture and prayer focus. Read the passage slowly, invite the Holy Spirit to speak, and carry God's Word with you throughout the week.

02 Reflect

Respond honestly to the reflection question. Listen for what God may be revealing and write what He is impressing upon your heart.

03 Pray Intentionally

Write the names and prayer requests God places on your heart—for your family, community, the worldwide church, and your own spiritual journey. Pray for them faithfully throughout the week.

04 Watch God Work

Record answered prayers, moments of gratitude, and ways you have seen God at work. Then take the week's mission step and put your faith into action.

THE WEEKLY RHYTHM

Read. Reflect. Pray. Respond. Repeat.

WHY 2027

OneVoice27 culminates in September 2027, commemorating approximately 2,000 years since Jesus began His public ministry. As Christ launched His mission through the power of the Holy Spirit, we unite in prayer to finish the mission He entrusted to His church.

> "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel ... to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."
>
> LUKE 4:18, 19 · NKJV

WHY THIS MOVEMENT?

Jesus began His public ministry empowered by the Holy Spirit. Today, we follow His example seeking the same Spirit to empower us to proclaim the everlasting gospel to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people.

WHY ME?

Every movement of God begins with people who pray. Your prayers matter. Your faithfulness matters. Together, God can do immeasurably more than any one of us could ever accomplish alone.

MY COVENANT OF PRAYER

Lord, You have promised that when I call, You will listen; that when I seek You with all my heart, I will find You. So here I am.

Over the coming year, I give You my time, my heart, my prayers, and my willingness. I will faithfully lift the names on these pages before Your throne and trust You to work in ways I cannot see. When You open a door to serve, I will walk through it in faith.

Make me new. Make my church new. Make all things new.

> "Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart."

TEN DAYS OF PRAYER

JANUARY 6 – 16, 2027

PRAYERS AND PROPHECY
GOD'S SURE WORD

Ten days at the start of the year, spent in the company of Daniel and John — a life of prayer, a promise searched out, an answer given right on time

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face … then I will hear from heaven."

2 Chronicles 7:14 · NKJV · tendaysofprayer.org

A YEAR LIKE NO OTHER

The 2027 Ten Days of Prayer carries a special significance. Our theme, “Prayers and Prophecy: God’s Sure Word,” invites us to experience Bible prophecy in a fresh and personal way — and to discover afresh that the God who declares “the end from the beginning” (Isaiah 46:10) holds our future in His hands.

These Ten Days are also the prayer launch pad for OneVoice27, the worldwide evangelistic emphasis that will culminate in September 2027, marking 2,000 years since Jesus’ baptism and the beginning of His ministry.

As we kneel together in January, we are preparing our hearts to lift up one voice in proclamation. Prayer leads to power, and power leads to mission.

Join us on this journey of prayers and prophecy, that our lives — and the lives we influence for heaven — may experience the promised “all things new.”

Ten Days of Prayer 2027 readings written by Dr. Clinton Wahlen, an Associate Director of the Biblical Research Institute.

GUIDELINES FOR PRAYER TIMES

Each day gives you a passage from Daniel or Revelation, a short reading, and three prayers drawn straight from the text. Pray them aloud — then pray your own prayers.

01 Keep your prayers short
Just a sentence or two on one topic, then give others a turn. You can pray as many times as you'd like, just as you talk in a conversation. Do not be afraid of silence — it gives everyone time to listen to the Holy Spirit.

02 Pray your requests, don't discuss them
Rather than using up valuable prayer time talking about your requests, simply pray them. Then others can pray for them too and claim promises for your need. Sing together as the Spirit leads; acapella is fine.

03 Claim the promises
All His commandments and counsels are promises — He would never ask of us what we could not do in His strength. Present the pledged word of Jehovah and by faith claim it.

04 Fast simply
A Daniel fast of simple food for these ten days — and a fast from screens, games, and social media. Fasting is not a quick way to obtain a miracle; it is humbling ourselves so God can work in us and through us.

05 Let the Spirit lead your praying
We do not always know what to pray for; the Holy Spirit intercedes for us. Ask Him what to pray in a person's life or situation, and thank God in advance for how He will answer.

06 Pray for five to seven people
Relatives, friends, coworkers, neighbors. Write the names and keep them where you will see them — in your Bible. Ask God to open a door this year, through OneVoice27, so you can share the hope of His soon return.

EACH DAY'S PRAYER TIME · 30–45 MINUTES

- Thanks and praise
- Confession
- Guidance
- Listen and respond
- Our church
- OneVoice27
- Local requests
- Song

Outreach challenge · Ask God how you and your church can serve others during and after these ten days — and how those acts of love can become bridges to OneVoice27 in September.

DAY 1

DANIEL'S LIFE OF PRAYER

> Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went home. And in his upper room, with his windows open toward Jerusalem, he knelt down on his knees three times that day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as was his custom since early days.
>
> DANIEL 6:10 · NKJV

A Heart Resolved to Be Faithful

It's difficult to imagine the situation that Daniel as a young man confronted, marching on foot eight to ten miles per day for four months—altogether a journey of about 1,000 miles (about 1,600 km) from Jerusalem to Babylon. No doubt he prayed most of the time along the way. Upon his arrival, his name and those of his friends were changed and he was offered food from the king's table, but Daniel refused because he "purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself" (Dan. 1:8). That clear purpose, to remain faithful to God, guided and preserved him throughout his life.

When King Nebuchadnezzar decreed that all the wise men of Babylon were to be killed, Daniel gathered his friends together for prayer to "seek mercies from the God of heaven" to reveal the king's dream and to ask that they "might not perish" (Dan. 2:18). In answer to prayer, the dream and its meaning was revealed to Daniel, who testified to the king of the "God in heaven who reveals secrets, and He has made known . . . what will be in the latter days" (Dan. 2:28). Daniel's prayer life enabled him to stand unafraid before the most powerful on the planet and share the truth boldly and wisely.

Unshaken Prayer in Times of Crisis

On the night of Babylon's fall, King Belshazzar was killed, yet Daniel's life was not only preserved but he was made one of only three governors over the entire kingdom of Medo-Persia (Dan. 6:1, 2). Jealousy led the other Persian officials to plot Daniel's demise. His prayer life was obviously well–known, because this practice of his was the way they chose to imperil Daniel's life. Once again, however, prayer was the means of his deliverance. Rather than retreating to a "prayer closet" that day, Daniel unswervingly maintained the practice he had followed "since early days," throwing open his windows toward Jerusalem and kneeling three times that day to pray and give thanks to God. He understood that his public witness to the God of heaven and earth must not be diminished but shine even more brightly in times of darkness than in times of peace and prosperity.

Like Daniel, each of us needs a consistent life of prayer, whether we've had this "since early days" or are only now beginning it. Just purpose in your heart as he did, and the same God will answer you too.

Let's pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"He knelt down on his knees . . . as was his custom"

Lord, teach us to make prayer the steady habit of our lives, not just the cry of an emergency. Like Daniel, may we come to You faithfully, morning by morning, until communion with You is the most natural thing we do. Build in us a life of prayer that nothing can shake.

"Prayed and gave thanks before his God"

Father, fill our prayers with thanksgiving. Even when the writing is signed against us and the future looks uncertain, remind us that You reign over kings and kingdoms, that You declare the end from the beginning, and that our times are in Your hands. We thank You in advance for answers we have not yet seen.

"With his windows open toward Jerusalem"

Lord, like Daniel with his windows open toward Jerusalem, give us courage to witness openly and never hide our faith. Through OneVoice27 this year, make us carriers of the gospel who lift up one voice and let our light shine brightest in the darkest times, until Jesus comes.

DAY 2

WAITING ON GOD FOR ANSWERS

> I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years specified by the word of the Lord through Jeremiah the prophet, that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.
>
> DANIEL 9:2 · NKJV

Driven to His Knees by God's Word

Before Daniel's ordeal in the lion's den, he received the vision about the 2,300 days recorded in Daniel 8:14. It upset him so much that he "fainted and was sick for days" because "no one understood it" (Dan. 8:27). Nearly ten years passed and he still didn't understand. It was now 539 B.C. Daniel had been in Babylon for sixty-six years and the seventy years of Israel's captivity in Babylon prophesied by Jeremiah (see Jer. 25:11, 12; 29:10) were supposed to come to an end soon. But the long time prophecy of 2,300 evenings and mornings worried him. Might Israel's sanctuary have to lay desolate much longer? Daniel studied the prophecies of Jeremiah and realized the time should be drawing near: "I, Daniel, understood . . . that He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem" (Dan. 9:2). So, recognizing that God's word must be fulfilled, he prayed earnestly, confessing his sin and the sins of his people Israel, so that nothing on their part would prevent God from fulfilling His promise.

Sometimes we think that God's word will be fulfilled regardless of what we do, that His purposes always "know no haste and no delay." That is true in the case of certain unconditional prophecies, such as the coming of Jesus to earth to die for our sins—nothing could keep Him from fulfilling His promise of salvation. However, Daniel recognized that most Bible prophecies, particularly those connected with God's promises to Israel as a nation, are conditional. Depending on the people's response to God's word, their prophetic hopes might be realized or not.

Learning to Wait on the Lord

It's not always easy to wait on the Lord for answers to our prayers, but we are repeatedly urged to do just that: "Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; wait, I say, on the Lord!" (Ps. 27:14). And again: "Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, but those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint" (Isa. 40:30, 31). The time of waiting, as Daniel's prayer life illustrates, is designed as a time of reflection for us. Might something in your life or heart be hindering the fulfillment of God's promise for you?

Let's pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

PRAYING GOD'S WORD

"I, Daniel, understood by the books"

Lord, like Daniel, draw us to Your Word. Open to us the books of prophecy—Daniel and Revelation—and give us understanding by Your Spirit. Make us students of Scripture who search it earnestly and let it shape the way we pray.

"The word of the Lord through Jeremiah the prophet"

Father, thank You for speaking to us through Your prophets. As Daniel found light in Jeremiah's words, give us hearts that believe the sure word of prophecy—and through OneVoice27 this year, make us carriers of that word who lift up one voice and share its hope with a waiting world.

"He would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem"

Lord, You kept Your word to the very year, ending Jerusalem's long desolation exactly as You promised. Restore the desolate places in our lives, our families, and Your church. As Daniel confessed his sins and his people's, search our hearts and remove anything that would delay Your promises in us. Teach us to wait with courage, certain that the God who finished His work for Jerusalem will finish His good work in us.

DAY 3

DANIEL'S PRAYER

> O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my God, for Your city and Your people are called by Your name.
>
> DANIEL 9:19 · NKJV

When Worry Drives Us to Pray

We saw yesterday that Daniel was very worried. What did he do when he was worried? He prayed. That's what we all should do. Let's look at Daniel's beautiful prayer, which has four parts: 1) Praise; 2) Confession and Declaration; 3) Reflection; 4) Petition.

His heartfelt prayer begins by praising God, recognizing and revering His greatness, His character, and His faithfulness (vs. 4). Most of the prayer involves confession but also declaration of God's righteousness (vss. 5–14) and acknowledging the whole range of Israel's sin, iniquity, wickedness, and rebellion (vs. 5). Daniel confesses their turning away from God's commandments and their disobeying the words of the prophets. He declares God's justice (vs. 7) but also affirms God's mercy and willingness to forgive (vs. 9). Daniel even identifies himself as part of Israel's rebellion: "we have sinned against You"; "we have rebelled against Him"; "we have not obeyed"; "we have sinned"; "we have not made our prayer before the Lord our God"; "we have not obeyed His voice"; "we have sinned, we have done wickedly!" (vss. 8–15). In short, Daniel refuses to disassociate himself from His people, acknowledging that he shares in the disaster that came upon Israel and that it was in fulfillment of the words of Moses which God warned them of long before. Daniel also affirms that God sent His servants the prophets and brought all this disaster upon Israel in order that they might turn from their iniquities and learn wisdom from God's word of truth (vss. 11–13; compare with Ps. 119:143; James 1:18).

A Plea for God's Own Glory

Finally, Daniel appeals to God's righteousness in all His dealings, His kindness in delivering Israel from Egyptian bondage, and His justice, pleading for God to turn away His righteous wrath and anger from Israel and hear His servant's petition on their behalf (vss. 16–19). Concern for Jerusalem and for God's "holy mountain" is the burden of Daniel's plea, and he asks that for God's own sake, His face would "shine on Your sanctuary, which is desolate" (vs. 17). He asks that God's eyes and ears would be open to Israel's desolations (vs. 18). Above all, Daniel's concern is that God would vindicate His holy name and fulfill His covenant promises (vs. 19). No hint of selfishness appears; only love and zeal for God's honor.

As you consider this prayer, search your own heart and consider how God has been merciful to you, what you might need to confess to Him, and what you most need from Him.

Let's pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive!"

Lord, hear us as we come confessing our sins and the sins of our people. Like Daniel, we make no excuses—we have sinned and we need Your mercy. Thank You that You are faithful and just to forgive us and to cleanse us.

"O Lord, listen and act! Do not delay"

Father, we cry out for You to act. Revive Your church, answer the prayers we have carried so long, and pour out Your Spirit upon us. We rest in Your timing, yet we plead with holy urgency: do not delay.

"For Your own sake . . . Your people are called by Your name"

Lord, free our prayers from selfishness and burden us for Your honor alone. We bear Your name—be glorified in us. Through OneVoice27 this year, send us out with one voice for the sake of Your name, that many will know You before Jesus comes.

GOD'S AMAZING ANSWER

> Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks; the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublesome times.
>
> DANIEL 9:25 · NKJV

Gabriel Comes with the Answer

In answer to Daniel's heartfelt prayer, the angel Gabriel came to finish his explanation of Daniel 8, especially the last part that the prophet found so distressing. As he listened to the angel, Daniel realized his people would return to Jerusalem as Jeremiah's prophecy had stated, but there was more, much more to this new prophecy than he realized.

The Hebrew word mar'eh (vision) in Daniel 9:23 refers specifically to the vision of 2,300 days (as it does in Dan. 8:15, 16, 26, 27). In other words, this new seventy-week time prophecy given in Daniel 9:24, 25 represents the first part of the longer time period of Daniel 8:14. That is, both time prophecies were to begin "from the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem" (Dan. 9:25), a decree recorded in Ezra 7. Without going into too many details at this point, what is crystal clear is that Jesus, here called "Messiah the Prince," would come at the end of sixty-nine prophetic weeks or 483 years, the first seven weeks of which (or forty-nine years) were allotted "to restore and build Jerusalem." As Ezra indicates, there were actually three decrees—of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes (Ezra 6:14)—but only the third and final decree of Artaxerxes, issued in 457 BC, fulfilled all the stipulations of the prophecy. Counting 483 years from this date and remembering that from 1 BC to AD 1 is a single year (there is no year 0), brings us to AD 27, "the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar" (Luke 3:1).

Right on Time

Amazingly, it was in precisely this year, AD 27, that God anointed Jesus as the Messiah at His baptism "with the Holy Spirit and with power" (Acts 10:38). We know from the Dead Sea Scrolls that Jews were aware of this prophecy and believed it would soon be fulfilled. The New Testament confirms that it was fulfilled—right on time! Daniel need not have worried about what must have seemed to him a long time. God had everything in His hands, under His control. The city of Jerusalem and the temple would be rebuilt. The Messiah would come. And this year, 2027, marks the 2,000-year anniversary of the beginning of Jesus' public ministry.

That's something to think about. Everything happened just as God had said and exactly on time. We can trust that God will answer our prayers too, not necessarily according to our timetable but according to His, because His timing is always perfect, whether the need is great or small.

Let's pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"Know therefore and understand"

Lord, give us hearts that long to know and understand Your Word. As You opened the prophecy to Daniel, open the Scriptures to us by Your Spirit, that we may see how every detail of Your plan points to Jesus.

". . . until Messiah the Prince"

Father, we praise You because every prophecy points to Jesus, the Messiah, and every promise is fulfilled in Him. Thank You for sending Christ at exactly the right time to reveal Your love and bring salvation to the world. As we prepare for OneVoice27, unite us with one heart and one mission—to lift up Jesus so that every nation, tribe, language, and people may hear His voice. Strengthen our faith in Your Word and use us as faithful messengers to proclaim Christ to this generation.

"The street shall be built again . . . even in troublesome times"

Lord, You rebuild and restore even in troublesome times. Build again what lies in ruins, and through OneVoice27 this year, make us builders of Your kingdom who carry the gospel and lift up one voice—even when the times are hard—until Jesus comes.

DAY 5

THE SURE WORD OF PROPHECY

> We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts.
>
> 2 PETER 1:19 · KJV

A Word More Sure Than Sight

Two disciples walking along the road to Emmaus were discouraged as they thought of the events of the crucifixion. As Jesus walked beside them, He learned of their discouragement, but instead of announcing His resurrection to them, "beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, He expounded to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself" (Luke 24:27). The apostle Peter, describing Jesus' Transfiguration, says they "were eyewitnesses of His majesty," when "He received from God the Father honor and glory" and "a voice came to Him from the Excellent Glory" (2 Pet. 1:17). But even though he was an "eyewitness," he indicates that "we have a more sure word of prophecy"—more sure than seeing Jesus in the flesh, and more sure than being eyewitnesses of His majesty.

We have the unique privilege of looking back across the sweep of history and seeing the fulfillment of prophecy. We saw how the prophecy of Daniel 9 predicted the precise time when Jesus would be baptized, be anointed by the Holy Spirit, and begin His messianic ministry—in AD 27. Daniel 2 covers an even broader scope, describing four world empires that have come and gone (Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome). It described the fourth empire, the iron kingdom of Rome, as being divided into the several nations of Europe. Despite many and varied efforts through the centuries to unite these nations, they remain divided because God said, "they will not hold together" (Dan. 2:43, ESV).

God has revealed the future to us not merely to satisfy our curiosity about what is coming but to assure us that His word is true, that it can be trusted, and that He is in control: “Remember the former things of old [history], for I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like Me, declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure” (Isa. 46:9, 10).

God not only knows what will happen; He knows how best to guide us. So, if events in the world trouble us, if things in your life seem out of control, remember that we can trust the One who has our future in His hands. The light of Bible prophecy shines into our dark world and into our hearts, enabling us to go forward in faith.

Let’s pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"A more sure word of prophecy"

Lord, thank You for the sure word of prophecy—surer even than what our eyes can see. Make us so confident in Your Word that we cannot keep silent.

"As unto a light that shineth in a dark place"

Father, in a dark and confusing world, let Your prophetic Word be a light—not only to our own path but to the people around us. Through OneVoice27 this year, make us light-bearers who carry Your truth into homes and communities still living in darkness.

"Until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts"

Lord Jesus, Bright and Morning Star, arise in our hearts—and through us in the hearts of many. Fill us with the hope of Your soon return and send us out with one voice to proclaim it. Come quickly, Lord; until then, let our lives shine until the day dawns.

DAY 6
ISRAEL AND PROPHECY

> And whoever falls on this stone will be broken; but on whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder.
>
> MATTHEW 21:44 · NKJV

Seventy Weeks of Mercy for Israel

The prophecy of Daniel 9 announces a probationary period for the nation of Israel: "Seventy weeks are determined for your people and for your holy city, to finish the transgression, to make an end of sins, to make reconciliation for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy" (Dan. 9:24). As we saw earlier, the next verse indicates when Jesus would begin this work as the Messiah—in AD 27. He would "make reconciliation for iniquity," "bring in everlasting righteousness," and "seal up vision and prophecy." He announced, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel" (Mark 1:15). The time He referred to is this prophecy of Daniel 9.

The prophecy goes on to indicate that the "Messiah shall be cut off, but not for Himself" (Dan. 9:26). Interestingly, the Jews thought that having Jesus crucified would prove that He couldn't be the Messiah, because they expected the Messiah to deliver them from the Romans. But, in fact, the prophecy says very clearly that He would be "cut off," He would die, "not for Himself" but for others. This was to take place after the sixty-nine weeks, that is, sometime during the seventieth and last "week" of the prophecy. The next verse is more specific as to the time: "Then he shall confirm a covenant with many [i.e., with Israel] for one week; but in the middle of the week He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering" (Dan. 9:27).

A Mission to the Ends of the Earth

Jesus sent out His twelve disciples on a mission to Israel, proclaiming, “The kingdom of heaven is at hand” (Matt. 10:7). In the middle of the final “week” of years, three and a half years after Jesus began His ministry, in the spring of AD 31, He was crucified. “Then, behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom” (Matt. 27:51), bringing “an end to sacrifice and offering” (Dan. 9:27), because Jesus, “the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world” (John 1:29) had come and died for us. He was the reality to which all the sacrifices pointed. After His resurrection, Jesus again sent His followers out on a mission that would begin with Israel but eventually extend everywhere: “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth” (Acts 1:8). Unfortunately, Israel did not recognize Jesus as the Messiah, the Savior of the world, which is why, surprisingly, as Daniel here predicts, “the city and the sanctuary” would not only be rebuilt but would be destroyed again, this time by Rome (Dan. 9:26; Luke 21:20). Pray that the gospel mission, which is also ours, will soon be finished.

Let’s pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you"

Lord, we cannot witness in our own strength. Pour out Your Holy Spirit upon us as You promised, and clothe us with power from on high. Make us wholly dependent on You for all that You call us to do.

"And you shall be witnesses to Me"

Jesus, make us Your witnesses—not merely arguing for a cause, but pointing people to You. Fill our mouths with Your words and our lives with Your love, that everyone we meet may see and hear about our Savior.

". . . to the end of the earth"

Lord, Your gospel is for every people and place. Through OneVoice27 this year, send us out with one voice to carry the good news to our neighbors and to the ends of the earth, that the mission—which is also ours—may soon be finished and Jesus may come.

DAY 7

THE LONGEST TIME PROPHECY

> And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred days; then the sanctuary shall be cleansed."
>
> DANIEL 8:14 · NKJV

The 2,300 Days and 1844

As we saw earlier, the time prophecies of Daniel 8 and 9 are closely connected and begin at the same time. Like the seventy-week prophecy, the prophecy of 2,300 days in Daniel 8:14 begins in 457 BC. Counting 2,300 years from this date ("a day for each year," Ezek. 4:6) and remembering that there is no year "0" brings us to AD 1844. "Then the sanctuary shall be cleansed" (Dan. 8:14). But what is this sanctuary and why would it need cleansing?

As we mentioned earlier, the earthly temple or sanctuary was destroyed twice: the first temple was destroyed by Babylon, and the second temple by Rome. Since then, it has never been rebuilt, though some people dream of building a third temple. So, what sanctuary is being referred to? As Paul in the book of Hebrews indicates, there is another sanctuary, not on earth but in heaven, "the true tabernacle which the Lord erected, and not man" (Heb. 8:2). But how could anything in heaven ever need cleansing? Well, Paul answers that too: "Therefore it was necessary that the copies of the things in the heavens [the earthly sanctuary] should be purified with these [animal sacrifices], but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ has not entered the holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us" (Heb. 9:23, 24).

Our High Priest and the Judgment

The apostle John describes what Jesus is doing in the heavenly sanctuary: “My little children, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous.” “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 2:1; 1:9). Our sins need to be cleansed by the blood of Jesus. This is the process described as the “cleansing” of the heavenly sanctuary. Notice how Daniel describes it: “I watched till thrones were put in place, and the Ancient of Days was seated. . . . A thousand thousands ministered to Him; ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. The court was seated, and the books were opened” (Dan. 7:9, 10).

Speaking of this end-time judgment, the angel of Revelation 14:7 warns, “Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come.” Soon this judgment that began in 1844 will be finished and Jesus will come. Enter this sanctuary by faith, praying to Jesus, our heavenly High Priest, that everyone will hear this heavenly warning and ready themselves for His return.

Let’s pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"Fear God and give glory to Him"

Lord, teach us to fear You with reverent love and to give You all the glory. May our worship, our words, and our choices honor Your name above everything else. Let all we are and all we do bring glory to You alone.

"For the hour of His judgment has come"

Father, we live in the hour of Your judgment, when Jesus our High Priest ministers for us in the heavenly sanctuary. Cleanse us by Your blood. We believe Your promise that if we confess our sins, You are faithful and just to forgive us and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Search our hearts and make us ready to stand before You.

"Worship Him who made heaven and earth"

Creator God, You alone are worthy of worship. Through OneVoice27 this year, send us out with one voice to call the world back to You—the Maker of heaven and earth—that many may worship You and be ready before Jesus comes.

DAY 8
THE PROPHETIC LITTLE BOOK

> Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.
>
> DANIEL 12:10 · NKJV

Sealed Until the Time of the End

Near the end of the book of Daniel, just after one of its last prophecies is given, the prophet asks a question that many of us would like the answer to: “My lord, what shall be the end of these things?” He wants to know how all that he has seen will wind up. How will it all end? The answer he was given was no doubt disappointing: “Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end” (Dan. 12:9). Prophecies sealed? Not to be understood till the time of the end? When might that be?

The Open Book and the Call to Prophesy Again

A clue is found in Revelation 10, where a "mighty angel" came down from heaven with "a little book open in his hand" (Rev. 10:1, 2). When he cried out with a loud voice, "seven thunders uttered their voices." John was about to write down what they said but was told, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and do not write them" (Rev. 10:3, 4). In Daniel the book was sealed, but here in Revelation it's open. However, what the seven thunders uttered is now sealed. Next, John was told to take the little book from the angel, and when he did so, "it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. But when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. And he said to me, 'You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, tongues, and kings'" (Rev. 10:10, 11).

The little book represents the time prophecies of Daniel that were not understood until the time of the end. A clue about when that time would begin is given in Daniel 12:7: ". . . it shall be for a time, times, and half a time; and when the power of the holy people has been completely shattered, all these things shall be finished" (Dan. 12:7). Revelation 12 mentions this same period but equates it to "one thousand two hundred and sixty days" (Rev. 12:6, 14; compare with Rev. 11:2; 13:5). Based on the prophetic formula of a day for a year, this prophecy refers to 1,260 years. So the time of the end would begin after this period of persecution when God's people would be "completely shattered." Putting all this together, the prophecy refers to the persecution stretching from AD 538 to 1798. The sweetness of expecting Jesus to come in 1844 turned into the bitterest disappointment and required believers to "prophesy again" once they understood the real meaning of Daniel 8:14. Let's pray for an appreciation of this special time in which we are now living and for the opportunity to share Jesus' soon coming with others.

Let's pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"Many shall be purified, made white, and refined"

Lord, purify us, make us white, and refine us through every trial. Burn away whatever is not of You, and bring us forth as gold. Make us part of the purified people who are ready to meet You.

"None of the wicked shall understand"

Father, guard us from a hard and careless heart that cannot see Your truth. Keep us humble and teachable, never indifferent to Your Word. Do not let us be among those who refuse to understand.

"But the wise shall understand"

Lord, give us the wisdom that comes from knowing You, that we may understand the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation. Through OneVoice27 this year, send us out with one voice to share Jesus' soon coming, that others may understand and be ready too.

DAY 9

THREE ANGELS AT THE END

> Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Thrust in Your sickle and reap, for the time has come for You to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe." So He who sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

> REVELATION 14:14–16 · NKJV

Three Scenes in Revelation 14

Revelation 14 has three scenes: the victorious 144,000 standing on the sea of glass in heaven (vss. 1–5), the three angels' messages designed to prepare this group for the second advent (vss. 6–13), and the second coming of Jesus with His reward of eternal life for believers and destruction by "the brightness of His coming" for unbelievers (vss. 14–20; compare with 2 Thess. 2:8). This last scene is the climax of all of earth's history, "the blessed hope" for which we have waited so long (Titus 2:13).

Ripe for the Harvest, Ready for Heaven

Notice the timing is not arbitrary, nor is it irrevocably fixed in heaven. Jesus comes when "the harvest of the earth is ripe." Like any wise farmer, Jesus waits to reap the harvest until the time is right. A parable described this process of ripening: "first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head. But when the grain ripens, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come" (Mark 4:28, 29, emphasis added). According to Jesus, the group who are ready for heaven "keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus" (Rev. 14:12). They "follow the Lamb wherever He goes," and "in their mouth was found no deceit, for they are without fault before the throne of God" (Rev. 14:4, 5).

The judgment in heaven merely confirms and ratifies what has already become a reality on earth. God's people are so close to Jesus that nothing can separate them from Him. Even during the time of trouble and the seven last plagues (Rev. 16), which come after He leaves the heavenly sanctuary, putting off His mediatorial robes and donning His kingly robes, Jesus walks with them and talks with them through the Holy Spirit. They are ready for heaven, for they have heaven in their hearts—which is the precious presence of Jesus Himself. If you don't yet know this wonderful assurance and presence of Jesus or desire an even closer walk with Him and more constant awareness of His loving Spirit, pray to Him in the heavenly sanctuary and ask Him to come near.

Let's pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"One like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown"

Lord, we worship You as our King and Savior. Reign in our hearts today. Shape our lives to reflect Your character, strengthen our faith, and prepare us for the glorious day when we will see You face to face.

"For the harvest of the earth is ripe"

Father, the fields are ripening for harvest. Through OneVoice27 this year, send us out as laborers with one voice, that many may be gathered in before the great reaping. Make us ready, and make us reapers in Your harvest.

"And the earth was reaped"

Lord, hasten the day when the harvest is complete and You return to gather Your people home. Keep us close to You—following the Lamb, faithful and without deceit—so that we are ready for that glorious day.

ALL THINGS NEW

> And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away. Then He who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." And He said to me, "Write, for these words are true and faithful."
>
> REVELATION 21:4, 5 · NKJV

All Things New—Someday Soon

Someday soon all the troubles and trials of this life will be a distant memory as we experience the light, glory, and ecstatic joy of seeing Jesus face to face. We will be transformed "in the twinkling of an eye" (1 Cor. 15:52) to immortality, eternal vigor, and the boundless opportunities eternity will present. Truly, "eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him" (1 Cor. 2:9). Even the glimpses we may now receive through the Holy Spirit's enlightenment could never possibly enable us to grasp what eternity offers.

All Things New—Today, by Faith

Nevertheless, we have already "tasted of the heavenly gift . . . and the powers of the world to come" (Heb. 6:4, 5, KJV) through the gift of the Holy Spirit. We know by experience what it is to be a "new creature," a totally new person in Christ (2 Cor. 5:17, KJV). Forgiven. Cleansed. Risen. Alive—truly alive in union with Christ. We need not wait to understand and experience "all things new" when Jesus comes. We can experience that today and every day—till He comes! Best of all, it can affect everything we desire, plan, think, and do. Our will, when surrendered to the God who knows and can plan far better than we can, opens up a fountain of blessings and growth in grace and knowledge of Jesus that only those who have experienced it can know. To such believers no explanation is necessary, and to those who don't know it yet, no explanation is possible that would enable them to understand it, because it comes only by faith.

Jesus said, "According to your faith be it unto you" (Matt. 9:29, KJV). Not coincidentally, it was spoken to two blind men who came to Jesus to see. And Jesus says the same thing to the spiritually blind today. All we need to do is cry out, as they did, "Son of David, have mercy on us!" (Matt. 9:27). It's a prayer that will never go unanswered. Jesus waits and knocks at our heart's door every day, longing to spend the day with us, longing to help and guide us. Let's pray the experience of "all things new" will be ours today and every day—till He comes.

Let's pray together.

WHAT GOD SAID TO ME TODAY

"God will wipe away every tear from their eyes"

Father, thank You for the promise of a world with no more death, sorrow, crying, or pain. Comfort all who weep today, and fix our hope on the day when Your own hand will wipe away every tear. Carry us faithfully until that day.

"Behold, I make all things new"

Lord, make all things new—beginning now, in us. Make us new creatures in Christ today: forgiven, cleansed, risen, and alive in You. And finish the work by making all things new when Jesus comes.

"Write, for these words are true and faithful"

Father, Your word is true and faithful, and the world needs to hear it. Through OneVoice27 this year, send us out with one voice to share this sure hope of all things new, that many may believe and be ready before Jesus comes.
